

CHARLIE RUSSELL'S YARNS

Presented by
Mile High Back Country Horsemen

8:00 pm Friday March 25, 2011
Mother Lode Theater - 315 West Park St. Butte

This internationally acclaimed show explores the life and works of Charles M. Russell through his own words. America's most popular painter/sculptor of the 'Old West' also told exciting and hilarious yarns. While telling amusing stories, Russell was sharing rural wisdom and social commentary that still ring true today.

Part auto-biography, part virtuoso storytelling, Charlie Russell's Yarns is a hearty feast for the soul portrayed by Raphael Cristy.

Each paid convention registration receives a free ticket.
Additional Tickets: $10 adults $5 students
